

Managing Director

Gregory M. Gillott

Gregory M. Gillott is Managing Director for Equity and the Greater Cincinnati Market. He provides leadership to Equity's Brokerage Division with an emphasis in recruiting, empowering and training agents and procuring new business opportunities. As a Managing Director, Greg has broad authority over all of Equity's services, thus creating a consistent, uniform office. With his expertise in real estate, Greg provides Equity a strong foundation for growth.

Greg most recently was Vice President at Cincinnati Commercial Realtors for over six years. He was also a top producing agent with Cushman and Wakefield, focusing on tenant representation. Prior to that, he served as Operations Manager for Giddings & Lewis Controls and Measurement & Sensing. His outstanding client lists includes Coca-Cola, Lucent Technologies, Morgan Stanley, International Paper and Phillips Edison, among others.

Greg's experience and dedication to his clients has won him numerous awards and recognition. He has been Cincinnati's Top Producer three times and has also been recognized as a Power Broker. In 2002, the Cincinnati Board of Realtors recognized him as the Rising Star.

For Greg, joining Equity was an opportunity to better serve current and future clients with a full service platform. With its strong value foundation, Greg easily sees Equity as a place where his clients can receive service with absolute quality and integrity.
