

James P. Ryan

Senior Vice President

Jim joined Equity June 2010 as Senior Vice President. Jim has expanded his representation to include office, retail, and development. He secured the land and ultimate development of the American Red Cross Headquarters in Cincinnati. He also negotiated the sale of the former Headquarters site of the Red Cross. His knowledge in site development has led to several medical buildings being constructed over the past five years. Jim has also been instrumental in retail development for three nationally known restaurant chains.

Prior to entering commercial real estate Jim was the owner of Carlson Wagonlit Travel in Greater Cincinnati. He was Vice President/General Manager with AAA in Cincinnati before starting his own business.

Jim has been licensed to practice real estate since 1996 in Ohio and Kentucky.
